FLY BETTER

MEETINGS, INCENTIVES, CONFERENCES AND EVENTS

Make your journey as rewarding as the event

Fly to a meeting, conference or special event and let us take care of the travel arrangements.

You can make straightforward group bookings for all your attendees, enjoy special fares and benefit from our world-class services.

If you're producing a conference or exhibition, we can also offer special fares for your guest speakers and attendees, and we'll help you to promote the offer online.

Our network reaches over 150 destinations across six continents, so we can be your travel partner wherever your event takes you.

What are the benefits?

Fly with us and enjoy:

- Easy online bookings from more than 150 cities to your event destination
- Special fares in Economy Class and Business Class
- Chauffeur-drive airport transfers when you fly Business Class
- The flexibility to extend your trip for up to five days before and after the event
- Personalised onboard services, such as your logo on our headrests and celebratory packages
- Exclusive fares and marketing tools to bring people to your conference or exhibition
- Preferential rates for freight through Emirates SkyCargo
- A world-class travel experience from start to finish

Fly to your meetings and events

Whether you're flying to a business meeting, a team incentive or a destination wedding, you can enjoy our special fares and personalised services.

To be eligible for the special fares, you must have:

- 40 or more people travelling to your event
- Flights from two or more cities

Let us know your plans at least 45 days before your event so we can make the arrangements.

Personalise your trip

If 40 or more people in your group travel together on the same flight, we can create a personalised service to make your trip unique.

We can arrange:

- Separate airport check-in desks just for your group
- A personal onboard welcome announcement
- Headrest covers displaying your logo or the initials of the bride and groom
- Personalised cupcakes featuring your logo when you fly out of Dubai
- Cake and champagne packages
- Chocolate boxes

Simply tell us what you'd like to do, and we'll help you to make the arrangements.

Attract visitors to your event

If you're producing a conference or exhibition for 300 or more attendees, we can work with you to offer:

- Exclusive fares to fly in your attendees and guest speakers
- A private booking link on your official website
- Marketing content for emails and your website to inform your guests of the special fares

Contact us about your conference or exhibition at least 90 days before the event to give us time to set everything up.

Fly Better with us

You can take advantage of our broad network of over 150 destinations, and enjoy convenient connections through our hub in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

You'll fly on our young fleet of A380 or Boeing 777 aircraft. You can relax in comfortable seats and savour gourmet meals inspired by the region, matched with a selection of fine beverages. You can choose from over 4,000 channels of entertainment, including breaking news headlines and live TV on selected flights. And you can stay in touch with your office or family through our free onboard Wi-Fi.

When you fly in Business Class, you can ease into your journey from our airport lounges. Settle back in your flat-bed seat or stroll to our A380 Onboard Lounge during your flight. You can also enjoy convenient transfers with our complimentary Chauffeur-drive service to and from the airport in over 75 cities.

Earn Skywards Miles

If any of your attendees or guests are members of our loyalty programme, Emirates Skywards, they can earn Skywards Miles on their flight. You can simply register their membership number when you book. Not a member? You can join for free online and start enjoying the rewards and benefits. Find out more on emirates.com.

Emirates SkyCargo

We'll offer you preferential rates and work with your local Emirates SkyCargo team to transport your exhibition stand, products, merchandise or anything else you need for your meeting, conference or event. From cars to horses, food and specialist medical equipment, Emirates SkyCargo has the capability to transport your cargo with expertise and care.
